| | 10 days or more | | |
| Thursday, Oct. 9 through Sunday, Oct. 19, 2003 | This tour replaces the previous listing for Italy. It includes additional days at the beginning of the trip to include Rome with the previously planned travel in Tuscany, as requested by people signing up for the trip. Leisurely Italy – experience 11 exciting days in Italy including stays in Rome, Florence, and Venice. Sightseeing in Rome will include a visit to the St. Peter’s Square and Basilica, the Roman Forum and Colosseum, Vatican Museums and Sistine Chapel, famous for Michelangelo’s ceiling paintings including The Last Judgement. You may relax in the afternoon or take an optional walk that visits the magnificent marbled Trevi Fountain, Navona Square, the Roman Pantheon, the Spanish Steps, and a lively Roman dinner party. The next day will be for your own explorations, or an optional excursion to Pompei, the Roman city both destroyed and preserved by a volcanic eruption in 79 AD. On day 5 you will follow the Aurelian Way along the Tyrrhenian coast to Pisa and continue on to Florence, the capital of Tuscany. Day 6 in Florence will have a guided tour including the magnificent Santa Maria del Fiore, Giotto’s Bell Tower, the Baptistry’s heavy bronze “Gates of Paradise”, the sculpture-studded Signoria Square, and Michelangelo’s celebrated David in the l’Accademia. In the afternoon you may browse in the Piazza Santa Croce shops famous for leather goods and gold jewelry. Day 7 will provide an excursion into the medieval towns of Tuscany including the hilltop San Gimignano and Siena, the most perfectly preserved medieval towns. In the afternoon you will take the scenic road along Chianti Road to the splendid Verrazzano Castle to sample the blending of grapes that make the famous Chianti Classico. Day 8 provides a morning drive through the wooded Etruscan Apennine Hills to Venice. Enjoy the glittering maze of islands, canals, and bridges. Highlights include a walking tour of St Marks Square and the Byzantine splendor of St. Mark’s Basilica, lavish Doges’ Palace, and the Bridge of Sighs. Venetian Glass Blowers fashion delicate objects in an age-old traditional manner. Day 9 will include a lagoon cruise to the Isle of Burano, past the islands of San Giorgio and Santa Elena, and along the banks of the famous Lido. Burano is a picturesque fishing village, renowned for its bright pastel-colored houses and for its lace-making. After a lovely lunch, you will return to Venice for an afternoon for your independent interests. On Day 10 we will leave Venice and travel via the lush plains of the Po River to Verona, medieval setting of Shakespeare’s Romeo and Juliet. After Verona, you will continue to Milan, home of the famous La Scala Opera House, the glass-domed Galleria, magnificent Gothic Duomo and Sforzesco Castle. You will have time for some final sight seeing, shopping at the Via Montenapoleona and Corso Vittoria Emanuele, or writing those last post cards. The next day you will depart Milan and arrive home on the same day, tired but filled with memories of an incredible country of wonderful people, great food, and unforgettable sites. | $2599 per person/ double $2949 single | Deposit $300 Final Payment July 24, 2003 Trip Ins.
